OSBORNE & LITTLE

2018 COLOUR TRENDS

The Osborne & Little January 2018 colour stories and designs take inspiration from Italy. The colours of the landscape from sunrise to nightfall evoke different moods- the combination of cool and warm colours is a key trend for 2018, soft pastels are used as an accent in rich colour stories and vice – versa.

Grey is the key neutral this season, we've seen neutrals move from beige to linen, and now to grey in a myriad of shades. These cool colours of stone, silver, pewter and steel are softened with blush, (a version of Millennial pink, fashion's shade du jour during 2017).

The wide spectrum of aqua, from duck-egg and turquoise to celadon and mint, offers a natural accent to the warmer shades of grey.

Several years ago, metallics became the new neutral, they continue to play an important part in our wallpaper designs. Minimalist interiors are given character with silver and gilver, whilst gold, copper and bronze provide light reflecting accents to both soft and rich colours.

Blue continues to be a strong trend, midnight and ink are complemented by copper and bronze for a rich and arresting combination, whereas Mediterranean hues of ultramarine and azure are mixed with whites for cooler, breezier schemes.
