AT OSBORNE & LITTLE

PRESS RELEASE - SEPTEMBER 2012

Osborne & Little is delighted to announce the signing of a long-term collaboration with Matthew Williamson to create exclusive furnishing fabrics and wallpapers.

September 2012 marks the 15th anniversary of Matthew Williamson. Launched in 1997 with his debut collection of just 11 outfits the company has since expanded into a world renowned fashion label, with three flagship stores and over 150 premium wholesale stockists.

We at Osborne & Little are very excited by this tie-up with Matthew Williamson, a unique talent in British fashion and its leading colourist. His original sense of design and colour will translate beautifully into furnishing fabrics and wallpapers.

Matthew Williamson said, 'Having my own interior design collection has long been an ambition of mine and I'm thrilled to finally see that ambition start to come to life in collaboration with Osborne & Little, whose products I have long admired.'

Speaking of the licence deal co-founder and CEO of Matthew Williamson, Joseph Velosa said, 'The time feels right to now focus our attention on building other facets to our clothing core. Furnishing fabrics and wallpapers are a natural extension of the brand and we look forward to adding more categories soon to develop our fashion and lifestyle philosophy.'

The first Matthew Williamson at Osborne & Little collection is scheduled to launch in autumn 2013.
